A woman is standing in the center of the frame, wearing a dark green lehenga with a light green cardigan. She is positioned in front of a large, ornate floral archway. The archway is composed of numerous white flowers, including daisies and lilies, interspersed with green foliage and palm fronds. The background behind the woman is a wall with a grid pattern of white squares. The floor is made of light-colored wood. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting an indoor studio setting.
