Lehariya

'Lehariya' is a simple Indian style of tie and dye. Traditionally seen in bright colors it has a very distinctive striped pattern. Literally translating to the term 'wave-like', lehariya symbolizes the unique and rich costume heritage of India.

At Shangrila, we strive to provide with the best. Heavenly tints, beautiful prints set the mood to take that leap. Choosing good quality fabrics, picking up skin friendly dyes for dyeing, printing and ensuring their proper treatment during fabric processing at every step kick starts our journey to craft each garment. Itsquisite designs using the best of garment making techniques bring the piece in shape. Intricate handwork, traditional skills and painstakingly done hardwork further adorn it.
