They are arranged in two columns on a long, narrow piece of pink lace fabric, which is laid out on a white tiled floor. The top column contains five samples in the following order from top to bottom: yellow, teal, magenta, blue, and tan. The bottom column contains five samples in the following order from top to bottom: green, orange, tan, blue-grey, and red. A single black sample is placed at the bottom left, below the tan sample in the second column.
