The right side of the advertisement features a dark background with a gold-colored Ziona logo at the top. Below the logo are two inset images: a close-up of the woman's hands holding the hem of the pink kurta, showing the intricate embroidery and her gold jewelry, and a smaller image of the woman sitting on a chair, wearing the same outfit. At the bottom of this section, the word "Emotions" is written in a serif font, followed by a small gold logo and the tagline "Style keeps on changing according to the times, but fashion is eternal." The number "32005" is printed at the very bottom.
